

INTERNATIONAL TOUR PROGRAM

Monday April 19th, 2027

Boston is a difficult race to enter. The majority of runners have to qualify and the qualification time standards are often beyond the abilities of most runners. As an International Travel Partner to the 2027 Bank of America Boston Marathon, 2:09 Events Ltd can guarantee a very limited number of invitation places for non-qualifiers.

Non-qualifiers start behind the qualified runners but there are no time requirements to use one of these places, however, you do need to be capable of finishing the race inside 6 hours from the gun to receive a medal and an official time. The latter is particularly important if you are trying to complete your Abbott World Marathon Majors because even if you do receive a medal, without an official time you will not receive credit towards your multi-star finisher medal.

As we have so few places all our non-qualifier, guaranteed places are dependent on booking one of our travel packages, which includes return British Airways flights, five nights' accommodation at the excellent Langham hotel, airport transfers and some Boston cultural experiences. There is no entry only option with non-qualifier places.

You can extend your stay in Boston or combine the race with another trip in the USA but there is a five-night minimum at our hotel to access one of our 2027 Boston entries. An update in our contract with BAA this year means that as a UK agent we have to sell the majority of our entries and packages to UK based runners and we cannot sell to runners outside of Europe.

As we expect this tour to be heavily oversubscribed, we are offering many of our places through a lottery system although there will be some priority with some of the places for existing customers particularly those who will be completing their Abbott Marathon Majors journey at Boston. Some places will be available to anyone through the lottery.

You are receiving this information as you pre-registered your interest in the 2027 Boston Marathon. We will send you a link when we are open for bookings to allow you to complete our booking form. We do not put these places on public sale and we do not promote them beyond the interested list.

Completing the booking does not commit you to the trip, nor does it mean you will be offered one of our packages. There is no charge for completing the booking form and we will only be charged the deposit payment if we offer you a place. You can book up to two places on one booking but we will not accept multiple applications from the same name or address or applications for more than two entries.

From those who complete the booking form we will draw out the names until we have used all our available places. We will send the successful runners a link to pay a deposit. Payment of the deposit will guarantee your place and entry into the 2027 Bank of America Boston Marathon with one of our entries. If you do not pay the deposit within 24 hours the booking option will go to another runner. We will not chase you so please check your emails carefully including your junk.

ITINERARY - our basic package is based on return British Airlines flights between London Heathrow and Boston Logan airport, return transfers between the airport and hotel and five night's room-only accommodation at the Langham Hotel which is a short walk from Boston Common and the finish area of the race. We have increased the package to five nights because our group flights arrive late in the afternoon and would make it impossible to visit the Expo on arrival day. The extended package allows us more time before the race.

Thursday 15 April: Depart from London Heathrow on British Airlines flight BA213 leaving at 14:30 and arriving in Boston Logan Airport at 17:00 local time. On arrival meet your 2:09 Events representative, who will be on the same flight, for a private transfer to your hotel, the Langham Hotel Boston

Friday 16 April: Join us for a short shake out run past Boston Common and along the Charles River. Meet in the hotel reception for a morning walking tour around Boston's Freedom Trail. In the afternoon, we'll have an escorted tour to the Marathon Expo to pick up your race number and to do some shopping. It is a 30 minute walk from the hotel. The rest of the day is at leisure in Boston.

Saturday 17 April: There are a number of options for a Saturday morning run. You could enter the Boston Common 5K, which is organized by the Boston Athletic Association which also organizes Monday's Marathon. This fast, flat mass participation event starts and finishes ten minutes' walk from our hotel. It uses part of the marathon course and passes under the race finish line. You have to enter the race independently and entry is not included in our package.

Alternatively you can join us on a group outing to one of Boston's Park Runs, which like the UK are free to enter and start at 9am. There are two options Jamaica Pond or Danehy Park both accessible for the T-line.

Finally you could once again just run out through the Common and along the Charles River where you will see hundreds of other runners putting in their final runs before Monday's race. In the late morning, if you haven't done so already you can head down to the Expo to pick-up the running packs.

Sunday 18 April: We will be organizing two cultural experiences today, both included in the package. You have the option of a trip to Fenway Stadium to watch the afternoon's Boston Red Sox baseball match, or for those who are not interested in baseball we will arrange a visit to the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, one of Boston's most iconic cultural sites.

Monday 19 April: Buses to the race start at Hopkinton depart from nearby Boston Common. The bus to the start is included for all our runners although spectators cannot go to the start. We will walk runners the short distance from the hotel to the bus departure point. Spectators can join us on the Boston subway to go out to the Hills Newton between the 16 and 17 mile-point on the route before they take on Heartbreak Hill— after you've seen your runner you can jump back on the train to see them again at the finish and then walk back with them to the hotel. Join us in the evening for a drink in the hotel bar so that you can share your stories and celebrate your run.

Tuesday 20 April: We have a late evening flight back to London so today is another day to explore the delights of Boston. In the morning there is the option to join us on a guided tour of Harvard University on the other side of the Charles River in Cambridge. The Tour will be conducted by a current under graduate and will include a visit to some of Harvard's private museums. The afternoon is at your leisure but be back at the hotel by 18:00 to transfer to the airport for our return BA flight, which is BA202 which departs Boston Logan airport at 21:50 arriving in London Heathrow at 09:35 on Wednesday April 21.

THE LANGHAM BOSTON

The Langham is a luxurious 5-star hotel housed in the former Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. It is wonderfully located in the heart of the city overlooking Norman B Leventhal Park and just a five-minute walk to Boston Common where buses to the marathon start leave on Monday morning. Both the Marathon Expo and the Marathon finish line are less than a mile from the hotel and there are numerous restaurants and shops within easy walking distance of the Langham. The hotel features an indoor swimming pool, 24-hour fitness centre and excellent gourmet dining options including Grana, an Italian family-friendly restaurant and the Fed, a cocktail bar which also serves craft beers and a range of bar meals.

PRICES

PRICES ARE PER PERSON	*TWIN/DOUBLE	SINGLE
RUNNER	£3499	£4599
SUPPORTER/PARTNER	£2899	£3999
EXTRA NIGHTS 	£320	£600

Additional Optional items:

*Twin/Double prices mean there are two of you in the room, either sharing a King size bed (Double) or two beds in the room (Twin). You need to double/twin price above per person to see the room cost.

If you are travelling alone then the single price applies.

- The cost of entry ($775) is included in the runner package prices. There is no entry only

Our runner packages includes guaranteed non-qualifier entry to the 2027 Bank of American Boston Marathon, return economy flights on British Airline flights between London Heathrow and Boston Logan Airport, return transfers between the hotel and airport and five-nights' accommodation at the 5-star Langham Boston Common on a room only basis (breakfast is not included), full training support and guidance for the marathon and some cultural attractions as listed in the itinerary.

Airline ticket upgrades are available on request. Please note that our airline seats are group seats that require check in at the airport prior to travel, you will not be able to check in on-line and you will not able to confirm a particular seat prior to check in.

A non-refundable deposit is required to secure your place on this tour, We will only ask for a deposit when we offer you a place on the tour. Completing the booking form does not guarantee you a place or obligate you to take up an offer.

Initial Runner Deposit	£1250
Supporter/partner Deposit	£750

There will be a second runner deposit of £1000 payable in the first week of January. We will not complete your registration with the Boston Marathon until you have paid the second deposit. Once your entry is confirmed the two deposits are non-refundable under any circumstances.

The final balance is due 10 weeks before travel, which is approximately the second week of February, 2027.

Once the final balance has been taken and your entry has been confirmed by the Boston Athletic Association (BAA), the package is 100% non-refundable. If you pull out of the trip prior to confirmation of the place, for whatever reason, be it injury, illness or other commitments, you will lose your first deposit. After the place is confirmed, if you withdraw from the trip, you will also lose your second deposit and you have paid your final balance, you will lose everything if you withdraw from the trip.

These are non-negotiable terms and conditions, which are in line with our contract with the Boston Athletic Association, they are not our standard business terms and conditions. If you are not comfortable with them please do not sign up for the trip.

This is an expensive trip and we strongly advise you to take out travel insurance to protect you should injury, illness or other personal circumstances prevent you from taking up your place

209EVENTS
www.209events.com